PARTICIPANT COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATION
CFE INTERNATIONAL, LLC

The Participant hereby certifies to CFE International, LLC as follows:

No Improper Payments. None of the Participant's stockholders, directors, officers, employees, representatives, or agents have made, promised, offered, or authorized any payment or transfer of anything of value, directly or indirectly, to any person in order to obtain or retain business, or to secure an improper advantage in connection with any business activity involving CFE International, its parent company Comisión Federal de Electricidad (CFE), or any of its affiliates. For clarity, "anything of value" includes, but is not limited to, gifts, meals, entertainment, travel, charitable or political contributions, employment/internships, and similar benefits.

Compliance with Anti-Corruption Laws. None of the Participant's stockholders, directors, officers, employees, representatives, or agents have violated any anti-corruption laws or international anti-corruption standards, including but not limited to the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the Mexican National Anti-Corruption System, the OECD Anti-Bribery Convention, and all applicable laws.

Conflicts Disclosure. None of the Participant's stockholders, directors, officers, employees, representatives, or agents have any actual or potential conflicts of interest related to this competitive solicitation, any related negotiations or contracting, and to any business activity involving CFE International, its parent company CFE, or any of its affiliates.

Disclosure of Exceptions. If the Participant cannot certify the above, please attach a separate document describing the situation and any corrective actions taken. Participant shall promptly notify CFE International in writing if any change renders this certification inaccurate at any time prior to any contract execution.

Accuracy of Information. The Participant acknowledges that all information provided in this PARTICIPANT COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATION is true, accurate, and complete. Participants understand that CFE International may rely on this certification in evaluating proposals.
